Back-to-back seats game

- In pairs, students sit back-to-back, facing away from each other.
- The first player has 10 minutes to pick up on specific activities from the images below and describe them in detail to the other student who needs to listen carefully and draw everything. (Try to include the time, what happens, your feelings and the reasons. You may add extra details not mentioned on the images for more challenge)
- Now it's the other student's turn to do the same.
- Students compare their drawings to see how well they caught the details.
