

Pre task

Group work

- Cut the cards below and place them upside down on the table, one set on each table.
- One student should pick one card at a time and clearly say the school rule and whether it is allowed or not by referring to the tick sign for 'allowed' and the cross sign for 'not allowed'. If it is correct, the student can keep the card. The person with most cards at the end is the winner.

